

THIS WEEK'S ACTIVITIES (10/31-11/4)

SPELLING—word wall words, test on Thursday

MATH— timed tests (+/-), double/triple-digit addition and subtraction, linear measurement (customary & metric systems), story problems, 2-dimensional shapes review, perimeter, line plots, making change

READING/LANGUAGE ARTS— Wild Shots: They're My Life (continued), A Place of Their Own, Time For Kids, whole group/small group/partner/independent reading, vocabulary, synonyms, antonyms, homophones, homographs, poetry, author's purpose, common/proper nouns, journal writing, blogging, looking back in text for answers ("Find it, Prove it" strategy), cursive review (K, H, U, Y)

SCIENCE—moths, butterflies, mealworms, life cycles, camouflage, data collection, graphing

IMPORTANT NEWS

- 🍁 PAJAMA DAY is Monday (10/31). Students may wear their pj's to school and change into their Halloween costumes before the parade. The Halloween parade will begin at approximately 1:55. Costumes should be brought to school in students' backpacks and not worn to school. Be sure costumes/face paint is easily applied by students. No masks or weapons please.
- 🍁 Have extra Halloween candy? Donate it to the Hungry Pumpkin...just send it in to school this week for donation.
- 🍁 Report Cards come home Friday (11/4).
- 🍁 New spelling words come home Friday.

Our classroom email address is msalco@fairview.k12.oh.us.

Have a wonderful week!

